

Book Week

Monday 27th February to Friday 3rd March

We have a very exciting book week planned this year based around:

The launch of our book week will begin with assemblies on Monday 27th. The children will be encouraged to think about the enjoyment of reading including sensory stories, audio and magazines.

BOOK VOUCHERS

Each child will have their book voucher sent home for them to use in their local book shop or save it and use it towards a book on 10th March when Hayling Island Book shop are visiting.

Talk for Writing –STORY TELLERS

Each class will be working on their story telling skills based on the Pie Corbett approach which uses things like repetitive phrases, actions and story maps to help the children to re-member the stories. Each class will be working in teams of four.

THURSDAY - DRESS UP DAY!

Thank you for your efforts last year. One of the children's favourite parts of book week is strutting their stuff on our catwalk, so let's do it again.

THURSDAY – BOOK THEMED LUNCH

Julie in the kitchen has organised a scrumptious book themed lunch with bugs. (Not real!)

PUBLIC LIBRARY

Classes will have the opportunity to engage in activities and quiet reading at Stubbington library.

PARENTS - COME AND GET INVOLVED!

On Wednesday, from 1.30pm we would like to invite you to come to the hall and enjoy sharing some books and story sacks with your child.

This is a really valuable time for the children to be reminded about the
